The war disabled who are fit for civil jobs in Central Government Departments, are eligible on priority-I for employment against Groups 'C' and 'D' posts, for which, recruitment is made through the Directorate General of Employment and Training, Ministry of Labour. They can also avail of the benefit of loan assistance on liberatised terms under self-employment schemes to set up tiny/small scale industries, small scale service enterprises, undertake agriculture and allied activity, set up Khadi and Village industries in rural areas. Besides, Queen Mary Technical Institute, Pune, a private charitable institution, conducts ITI recognised vocational trades training courses for disabled ex-Servicemen to facilitate their rehabilitation. In addition, paraplegic homes at Kirkee and Mohali are being run for rehabilitation of paraplegic and tetraplegic ex-Servicemen. Disabled soldiers are also provided artificial limbs by Artificial Limbs Centres.

The Armed Forces personnel disabled in war or war like operations are given war injury pension at the rate of reckonable emoluments last drawn if the degree of disablement is 100% and this is proportionately reduced if the disability is less then 100%. The disabled Officers/Junior Commissioned Officers/Other Ranks, invalidated out of service are covered under the Army Group Insurance Scheme for insurance amount ranging from Rs. 80,000/- to Rs. 4 lakhs in the case of Officers and Rs. 37,500/- to Rs. 1,87,500/- in the case of Junior Commissioned Officers/Other Ranks, dependign upon the level of disability.

Ex-Servicemen have been provided age relaxation to the extent of military service plus three years against Reserved/Unreserved vacancies in Group 'C' & 'D' posts and also in Group 'A' & 'B' posts which are filled otherwise than by way of competitive examinations. The age relaxation is restricted to five years in Group 'A' and 'B' posts which are filled by competitive examinations.

Ex-Servicemen have been granted relaxation in prescribed educational qualifications. Army Class I, II and III Certificates have been equated to 8th class, 6th class and 4th class respectively in civil. For reserved vacancies for which the minimum educational qualification is Matriculation, an ex-Serviceman who has put in at least 15 years of service and has passed Army Class I or equivalent, is considered eligible. For the reserved jobs for which the minimum educational qualification is graduation, an ex-Servicemen who has put in at least 15 years of service in the Army and has passed Matriculation or equivalent examination is considered eligible.
